Athletic Shoes

Lacy recently joined a fitness group of other young ladies who have a common interest in building strength and slimming down. The exercise program they will be involved in includes high-intensity CrossFit training. Her old walking shoes are a bit worn and not up to the CrossFit challenge ahead. Her budget is about $60 and has no wiggle room. That is her max. She can't afford to spend a little more. Her feet tend to sweat a lot which results in chronic athlete's foot. Breathability is going to be key, along with the ability to remove the footbed to dry out the shoes between fitness sessions. Pink is cute.

Mystery Class - Watches

With Father's Day next weekend, Zoe is shopping for a new watch to give her granddad. She is looking for a dressy, durable Chronograph watch that he can wear everyday to work and on fishing trips. The watch should be water resistant and have alarm & calendar display features. Since Zoe's granddad eye sight is not the best and he has arthritis in his hands, she wants a watch with a large display, hours marked as number, and easy to put on.

Which watch should Zoe purchase? She has saved $300 for the Father's Day gift.
